MEETING FIRST TUESDAY EACH MONTH, 8 P. M.

July 3, 1945

The regular meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was called to order by Mayor Van Moreland in the Fire House at 8:20, with all members present except Councilman Charles Robertson. The minutes of the special meeting were read and approved as read as were the minutes of the last regular meeting. All bills were ordered paid on the motion of Councilman Fominaya, seconded by Councilman Wells and carried.

Town Treasurer Crown was instructed to have the books written for the personal property tax and have necessary bills printed and sent to the householders of the community. He was also ordered to have circulars printed for the purpose of having the residents assort trash and garbage properly as required by the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission.

A special meeting was ordered for Sunday morning for the inspection of lights to be constructed in the Seat Pleasant Heights area. The meeting adjourned at 10:10.

J. Theodore Crown, Clerk.
